

Foursquare Gospel Church

Poblacion Laak, Compostela Valley Province, Philippines

Overview

“Foursquare Gospel Church” is a small branch church located in the remote location of Compostela Valley Province, Philippines. It is a subsidiary of the larger “International Church of the Foursquare Gospel” located in Manila, the capital of the Philippines. “Foursquare Gospel Church” operates independently and only via donations.

Donations for “Foursquare Gospel Church” can be made directly to Ronald Williams, and will be shipped to Pastor JoJo’s “Foursquare Gospel Church” in the Philippines via Balikbayan Boxes on a Cargo Ship.

Every donation, large or small, will help change the lives of those who love Jesus as well as usher more souls to glorify God. Thank you to each one of you from the bottom of our hearts, in Jesus’ name.

Pastor JoJo Dalugdog, Foursquare Gospel Church

About Pastor JoJo

Pastor Arfel “JoJo” Dalugdog established and leads the “Foursquare Gospel Church”, and runs his local church with the help of his wife, Gemma. Pastor JoJo is also a dedicated Father to their son, Nathaniel. Pastor JoJo is the “Municipal Spiritual Development and Values Restoration Program Council” (MSDVRPC) leader, with more than 30 denominations and 130 Pastor Members for the entire Laak Municipality. Additionally, Pastor JoJo is the representative of “Bless Our Cops Movement National level Camp Crame”, and a member of “KALMIN Kalinaw Mindanao”, i.e., a group of missionaries who work in Muslim areas partnering with MBB (Muslim Background Believers) in Basilan, Sulu, Zambanga and Cotabato. Furthermore, Pastor JoJo reaches out to Lumads in the mountain areas. Lumads are a group of non-Muslim indigenous people in the southern Philippines.

About “Foursquare Gospel Church” and its Logo

“Foursquare Gospel Church” does not presently have a website due to available finances and because many of the residents do not have Internet access. Here is the main FourSquare website:

<https://www.foursquare.org/>